

More Yachts In the Marina than Out

Wednesday Wonders Summer Series 2017-18 Race 21

(28 Feb 2018)

Race 21 became the fourth victim this series of a strong wind. The fleet stayed within the confines of the marina following a strong wind warning from the Bureau. Squalls of 45 knots were possible. It was even enough for the dredge, working just off the breakwater, to call it a day and seek refuge near the Hampton Jetty.

The breeze averaged 26 knots at Fawcner for the afternoon and gusted to 39 knots at around 1500. Similar readings were taken at South Channel, Point Wilson and St Kilda. Despite the race being abandoned handicaps were provided with some significant changes

How could you forget?

← MOANA recording 7 podium finishes in a single series.

The days when Farr 1020's →
(ARABESQUE, FAST COMPANY, FORZADO, TEQUILA & WAVELENGTH)
had their own series.

← PUBLIC BAR who's light blue hull added a bit colour to the accumulation of white.

The Frank Sinatra devotee MY WAY who did it her way. →

← The days of little breeze.

The Centenary Class next week!
