

Strong Easterly sees Race Abandoned Sunday Sailors Summer Series 2019-2020 Race 10

The easterly breeze that saw race 10 abandoned had formed 24 hours earlier and was to last not only all weekend but into Monday. It was still blowing 25 knots with gust of 29 knots at Fawkner Beacon at midnight on Sunday. It averaged about 25 knots at Fawkner Beacon on Sunday morning with a maximum gust of about 31 knots at 1200. It is the second race of the series to be abandoned, and with 80% of the scheduled races complete puts Sunday Sailors in a good position compared to other keelboat series. Wednesday Wonders have completed 69% of their scheduled races, Twilights 76% with the Saturday Aggregate and Round the Stix Series combined completing 82% of their scheduled races.
