Corporate Governance is the framework of rules, relationships, systems and processes within and by which authority is exercised and controlled in corporations. It encompasses the mechanisms by which companies, and those in control, are held to account” – Justice Owen in the HIH Royal Commission report.

1 STRUCTURE OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE

The General Committee must be structured such that:

- a) its composition complies with the requirements of the Constitution;
- b) it has a proper understanding of, and competence to deal with, the current and emerging issues of the Club;
- c) it can provide direction to, and review the performance of, management; and
- d) it can exercise independent judgment.

A majority of General Committee members must be free of any business or other relationship that could materially interfere with, or could reasonably be perceived to materially interfere with, the exercise of their independent judgment.

1.1 Test of independence

A General Committee member will be considered to be independent if he/she:

- a) within the last three years has not been employed in an executive capacity by the Club;
- b) within the last three years has not been a principal of a professional adviser to the Club, or an employee associated with advice so provided (having regard to the materiality of the advice);
- c) is not a supplier of the Club or otherwise associated directly or indirectly with a supplier (having regard to the materiality of the business dealings);
- d) has no contractual relationship with the Club other than as a General Committee member (having regard to the materiality of the relationship); and
- e) is free from any interest and any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with the General Committee member's ability to act in the best interests of the Club.

General Committee members must advise the General Committee in a timely manner of any changes to their independence. The General Committee must annually assess the independence of each member in the light of interests disclosed by them. So that it can do this, each General Committee member must provide the General Committee with all relevant information and the General Committee should consider materiality thresholds from the perspective of both the Club and its General Committee members.

1.2 Independent professional advice

All General Committee members should bring an informed judgment to bear in decision-making. To facilitate this, General Committee members may take independent professional advice, if necessary at the Club's expense. Commissioning independent advice by individual General Committee members will require the approval of the Commodore and such approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

1.3 Term of Office

The term of office of a member of the General Committee is ultimately a decision of those members entitled to vote at a General Meeting of Members.

In order to create vacancies on the General Committee to encourage and facilitate membership by interested Senior Members who have the requisite skills and experience, General Committee members will normally serve for a maximum continuous term of four years, subject to the following exceptions:

- a) a person elected as a Flag Officer will normally serve a maximum continuous term of four years plus their years as a Flag Officer; and
- b) a person may be requested by the General Committee to extend their continuous term beyond four years, subject to them being re-elected, in order for the committee to benefit from particular skills and experience which that person brings to the committee.

A person who ceases to be a member of the General Committee because they have served a continuous term of four years should be at liberty to submit themselves for election in a year following the year in which they stood down.

For the purposes of introducing this policy, members of the General Committee in office prior to the 15 September 2015 may be requested by the General Committee to extend their continuous term beyond four years, subject to them being re-elected, in order to stage their stand down dates and thereby avoid a disruptive change to the membership of the Committee.

2 POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE

2.1 Powers

The General Committee may exercise all the powers detailed in the Constitution, provided those powers do not become contrary to the law or a direction given by the Club in general meeting.

2.2 Responsibilities

The General Committee will be responsible for:

- a) participating in the development of, and ultimately approving, the Club's strategic plan and performance objectives;
- b) overseeing the Club, including its control and accountability systems;
- c) reviewing, ratifying and monitoring systems of risk management and internal control, codes of conduct and legal compliance;
- d) approving and monitoring financial and other reporting to the members at large and other parties to whom such reports should be provided;
- e) approving and monitoring the progress of major capital expenditure and divestitures and capital management;
- f) ensuring that policies on key issues are in place and appropriate, particularly in areas that may give rise to liability for the Club;
- g) monitoring senior management's performance and implementation of strategy, and ensuring that appropriate resources are available;
- h) appointing and removing the Chief Executive Officer;
- i) appointing and removing General Committee members to and from sub-committees of the General Committee; and
- j) ensuring that the business of the Club is conducted ethically and transparently and that all decisions taken give priority to the interests of Members.

2.3 Delegation of powers and responsibilities

In accordance with the Constitution, the General Committee may delegate to any person any of the powers and responsibilities conferred on it provided that:

- a) any delegation of a power to expend money shall be limited to a specified sum; and
- b) no delegation may be further delegated except to the extent that the General Committee authorises such.

2.4 General Committee decisions

The agenda for Committee meetings will be determined by the Commodore:

- a) in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer;
- b) having regard for any matters nominated by General Committee members;
- c) ensuring provision for General Committee members to discuss matters without executives being present; and
- d) ensuring adequate coverage of strategic, financial and major risk areas.

Materials for meetings should be circulated to General Committee members at least two days before the meeting (unless circumstances prevent) and where appropriate, executives may be requested to present information and recommendations.

Proposals requiring a decision by the Committee should clearly state the proposer's recommendations.

The Commodore should ensure that all General Committee members have an opportunity to express their opinion and defer the final determination of a matter if:

- a) it is apparent that additional information is required; or
- b) it is apparent that members require additional time to consider the matter; or
- c) the matter requires the opinion of a General Committee member or members who are not present

Where it is necessary for a decision to be determined by vote, the Commodore should, where necessary, convene a further meeting, by telephone if necessary, to provide all General Committee members the opportunity to cast a vote. The Commodore will have a casting vote.

The Commodore should periodically request that a member of the General Committee conduct a review of the effectiveness of the meeting.

3 RESPONSIBILITIES OF A GENERAL COMMITTEE MEMBER

General Committee members will comply with the following core principles of conduct and be responsible for:

- a) discharging their duties in good faith and honestly, in the best interests of the Club;
- b) acting with required care and diligence and applying commercial reasonableness;
- c) making reasonable inquiries to ensure that the Club is operating efficiently, effectively and legally towards achieving its goals;
- d) undertaking diligent analysis of all proposals placed before them;
- e) being independent in judgement and action and taking all reasonable steps to be satisfied as to the soundness of all decisions taken by the Committee;
- f) using the powers of office for proper purpose, in the best interests of the Club;
- g) avoiding conflicts of interest and not allowing personal interests, or the interest of any associated person, to conflict with the interests of the Club;
- h) not making improper use or disclosure of information gained through their position of General Committee member nor take improper advantage of the position of General Committee member;
- i) ensuring that no conduct is likely to bring discredit upon the Club; and
- j) serving on General Committee sub-committees as required.

A General Committee member with a material, personal interest in a matter which is being considered by the Committee must not be present when the matter is being discussed unless otherwise agreed by the Committee, and may not vote on the matter.

General Committee members should participate in discussions with a robust exchange of views and bring their independent judgements to bear on issues and decisions.

4 COMMODORE'S RESPONSIBILITIES

The Commodore will be responsible for:

- a) ensuring that the General Committee provides leadership and vision to the Club;
- b) formulating, in consultation with the CEO, the agenda for General Committee meetings, ensuring adequate coverage of strategic, financial and major risk areas throughout the year;
- c) presiding over General Committee meetings and directing discussions to effectively use the time available to address the critical issues facing the Club;
- d) convening meetings, when necessary, to address specific matters which are not able to be dealt with adequately in scheduled General Committee meetings;
- e) ensuring that the General Committee has the necessary information to undertake effective decision making and actions;
- f) ensuring General Committee minutes properly reflect decisions;
- g) acting as a mentor to the CEO;
- h) maintaining an overview of the club's strategic planning process;
- i) maintaining an overview of the club's governance processes, including those in relation to financial management;
- j) assessing General Committee members' workloads and assessing whether members are meeting their workload;
- k) ensuring that, when a General Committee member takes office, they are fully briefed on the terms of their appointment and their duties and responsibilities;
- l) managing general meetings of members (usually twice per annum);
- m) ensuring regular and effective communication with members;
- n) representing the Club at local, regional, state and national levels and representing the views of the Club to the public.

5 CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

The Chief Executive Officer will be responsible to the General Committee for the overall management and performance of the Club in accordance with the strategy, plans and policies approved by the General Committee and ensuring compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

In particular, the CEO's responsibilities will include:

- a) ensuring that the Club complies with all statutory and regulatory requirements;
- b) facilitating the development of strategic plans taking account of the members' expectations and the resources available to the Club;
- c) ensuring that General Committee members are kept informed on a timely basis of developments which impact on their responsibilities;
- d) representing the Club within sporting forums, seeking advice and direction from the Commodore where the circumstances require;
- e) providing leadership to staff, motivating and developing staff, measuring and rewarding performance, and addressing areas of weakness;
- f) ensuring reliable recording systems and effective operating systems, particularly those which impact on members;
- g) ensuring that the Club's financial accounts present a true and fair view of the Club's financial condition and operational results; are in accordance with relevant laws, regulations and standards; and founded on a sound system of risk management and internal compliance and control;
- h) ensuring that the Club's risk management and compliance and control systems are operating efficiently and effectively in all material respects;
- i) ensuring that transactions outside the CEO's delegation are referred to the General Committee for approval;
- j) ensuring that all actions comply with the Club's policies in force from time to time; and
- k) other responsibilities as delegated by the General Committee from time to time.
- l) employing enough suitable senior staff to ensure operational stability in the event that the CEO was unable to attend to perform his duties e.g. incapacitated due to ill health

6 SUB COMMITTEES

6.1 Sub committees

The General Committee shall establish the following sub-committees:

- Executive Committee
- Finance and Audit Committee
- Sail Committee
- Off-the-beach Committee

- Recreational Boating Committee
- Race Management & Rules Committee

6.2 Special purpose sub-committees

The General Committee may establish sub-committees for other purposes in order to share detailed work and consider particular issues in detail. These currently include;

- Heritage Committee
- Member Participation Scheme Committee
- Social Committee

6.3 Structure and administration of sub-committees

Each sub-committee must have its own terms of reference, approved by the General Committee, setting out its responsibilities, membership, meeting frequency and General Committee reporting obligations.

It is important that the sub-committees be of a size and composition that is conducive to making decisions expediently, with the benefit of a variety of perspectives and skills.

Sub-committees may have access to employees through the CEO.

Sub-committees may, where they deem such appropriate, engage experts to assist in their considerations and determinations.

The membership of sub-committees should be periodically rotated, to the extent possible having regard for specific skills and experience which may be required.

The existence of a sub-committee does not diminish the responsibilities of the General committee.

6.4 Meetings and minutes

The members of sub-committees may meet or convene by telephone or other electronic means, as necessary.

Minutes of sub committee meetings must be recorded, endorsed as an accurate record and reported at the next full meeting of the General Committee.

6.5 Reporting to Members

General Committee will report to members on the performance of the Club at General Meetings scheduled a minimum of twice per year (March Special General Meeting and September Annual General Meeting); sub-committee updates may be added to these agendas to report to members at these meetings.

Each sub-committee is required to facilitate informal consultation with and feedback from a broad cross-section of members as input to their areas of responsibility.

7 EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee is established to assist the Commodore in the exercise of his/her responsibilities and is convened at the discretion of the Commodore.

7.1 Composition

The Executive Committee will consist of the Commodore, Vice Commodore, Rear Commodore, Treasurer and CEO.

The Committee's effectiveness will be facilitated by:

- a) Relevant, timely and unbiased information of the right length and quality and management's responsiveness to requests for clarification and amplification.
- b) Sufficient Committee meetings of appropriate purpose and length to enable proper consideration of issues.
- c) Committee procedures which are conducive to effective performance and flexible enough to deal with all eventualities.

16.2 Evaluation of the Commodore's performance

The following matters should be considered in assessing the Commodore's performance:

- a) The Commodore's leadership of the General Committee.
- b) The management of relationships and communications between General Committee members.
- c) The management of the relationship with the CEO.
- d) The management of relationships and communications with Members.

- e) The effectiveness of the process for setting the agenda and whether it allows Committee members to raise issues and concerns.
- f) The extent to which all General Committee members are allowed and encouraged to participate fully in Committee discussions.

16.3 Evaluation of each General Committee member's performance

The following matters should be considered by a General Committee member in self-assessing his/her performance:

- a) The extent to which the Committee member is prepared and informed for meetings and their meeting attendance record.
- b) The member's willingness to devote time and effort to understanding issues.
- c) The quality and value of their contributions at meetings.
- d) Their contribution to the development of strategy.
- e) The extent to which they have brought their knowledge and experience to bear in the consideration of strategy.
- f) The extent to which they have probed to test information and assumptions and where necessary, their resolution in maintaining their own views and resisting pressure from others.
- g) Their effectiveness in pursuing areas of concern.
- h) Their relationships with fellow Committee members and senior management.
- i) The respect which they are given by fellow Committee members.
- j) Their effectiveness in presenting their views and preparedness to have regard for the views of others.

17 DISCLOSURE

The General committee must ensure that timely and accurate disclosure is made to its Members on all material matters including, but not be limited to:

- a) the objectives of the Club and how they will be achieved;
- b) the financial and operating results compared with expectations;
- c) discussion and analysis of key financial and non-financial performance indicators used by management in assessing the performance of the Club;

- d) discussion and analysis of the operational environment of the Club such as changes in market conditions, changes in the regulatory environment, etc.
- e) discussion and analysis of the main factors and influences that may have a material effect on future results;
- f) recent and planned capital expenditure;
- g) material foreseeable risks facing the Club;
- h) governance structures and policies; and
- i) accounting standards and policies.

Information to be disclosed should be presented in accordance with generally accepted standards of accounting, financial and non-financial disclosure, and audit (where relevant).

18 DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

18.1 Scope

This policy applies to all officers, employees and persons contracted to perform tasks on behalf of Sandringham Yacht Club.

18.2 Delegated authorities

The General Committee has delegated certain authorities to certain roles or positions as detailed in the attached schedule.

The extent to which an officer, employee or contractor is authorised to commit the Club will be determined by the role to which they are assigned at the time the commitment is under consideration.

For the purpose of clarification, authorities are delegated to roles as distinct from people.

18.3 Sub delegation of authority

The incumbent of a position to which authority is delegated may:

- sub delegate any authority conferred on the position and in respect of financial delegations, up to a maximum of 75% of the financial value of the delegation and
- withdraw, alter or vary such a sub delegation.

By sub delegating an authority, the person does not relinquish that authority but retains it for as long as they occupy the position. The process for approval of any sub delegation is set out in section 21.8.

Sub delegates cannot further delegate their authority.

18.4 Multiple transactions

Authorisation limits apply to the aggregate of multiple transactions for one project. There must be no disaggregation of a transaction to facilitate authorisation. Transactions must not be broken into smaller segments for the purpose of circumventing the delegated limits, or for any other purpose, and are to be based on the total estimated liability of the Club. This aggregations rule does not apply to monthly orders from suppliers e.g. meat supplier/ gas supplier.

18.5 Contracts (and agreements)

Period of contract – It is desirable that contracts should have an expiry date or a termination notice period. Where a contract has neither, the period of the contract for the purpose of determining the delegated authority will be deemed to be the longer of the intended term or what is regarded as reasonable notice for such a contract.

Contracts with terms of more than three years – require approval by the General Committee.

Budgeted amount - when determining delegation levels for contracts where the full cost cannot be predetermined, the amount allocated in the budget is the basis on which to determine the appropriate delegation.

18.6 Disclosure where delegated authority limited

If a person is involved in a negotiation process in a matter which is likely to require an authority beyond that able to be exercised by the person, then all parties to the negotiations must be advised of that fact and further advised that all negotiations are subject to approval.

18.7 Conflicts of interest

All commitments must be made exclusively for the benefit of the Club. Persons exercising authorities are required at all times to act solely in the interest of the Club and to not act where there is a conflict of interest. In particular, no family member or associates may benefit personally as a result of a person exercising a delegated authority.

No person is authorised to approve their own travel and employee expense claims. These must be signed by the person's manager or supervisor. The CEO's expense claims must be signed by the Finance Manager (up to $100 per item, maximum $250 in any one month) or a member of the Executive.

18.8 Process for sub delegating authority

To sub delegate any authority, the sub delegation must specify the powers and authorities delegated and the period of delegation and be signed by the person granting the sub delegation and the CEO. Persons who delegate an authority must:

- ensure that sub delegation is reviewed regularly (at least annually); and

- obtain approval from the CEO, copies of all sub delegations and any changes to, or revocations of, those sub delegations.

18.9 Non-compliance

Any incidence of non-compliance with this policy, in particular exceeding a delegated authority, must be reported to the CEO who must then report the non compliance to the General Committee.

18.10 Policy Sponsor

The CEO is the sponsor of this Policy and is responsible for:

- maintaining a schedule of all approved delegations, sub delegations and transfers of authority; and
- annually reviewing the Policy, including the appropriateness of the levels of delegation allocated, taking into account changes in the business environment.

Where doubt exists as to the delegation of authority, reference must be made to the CEO for interpretation.

18.11 Review of delegations

The General Committee is authorised to approve amendments to the delegations of authority.
